

Contracting with the District Government

David P. Gragan
Chief Procurement Officer
District of Columbia

November 15, 2008

OVERVIEW

The Office of Contracting & Procurement (OCP), under the direction of the Chief Procurement Officer, was established by DC law in 1997 to provide contracting services for the District of Columbia.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR DOING BUSINESS WITH THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

- Online Vendor Registration – an electronic process for identifying businesses available to provide equipment, supplies or services.

- Index of Business Opportunities – view and search for current solicitations and subcontracting opportunities.

To access each of these categories, please visit our website at www.ocp.dc.gov.

PARTNERSHIP

OCP works in partnership with the Department of Small and Local Business Development (DSLBD) and the business community to develop meaningful programs to benefit business owners and to promote economic development. One such program is the DC Supply Schedule Program (DCSS).

DC SUPPLY SCHEDULE OVERVIEW

OCP developed the DC Supply Schedule (DCSS) to assist in streamlining the purchasing process.

The DCSS, which was established in 2002, is the city's multiple award procurement program for providing products and services to District agencies. The program is similar to the General Services Administration (GSA) multiple award program.

Only Certified Business Enterprises (CBEs) are eligible to apply for the DCSS.

Currently, there are sixteen (16) schedules that are open, and there are approximately 200 contracts on the DCSS. To view DCSS contracts, please visit our website at www.ocp.dc.gov, click onto List of Awarded Contracts.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE DC SUPPLY SCHEDULE

The goals and objectives for the DCSS are:

- ☐ To provide greater opportunities for Certified Business Enterprises (CBEs) to conduct business with the District.
- ☐ To provide a streamlined and cost-effective purchasing process.
- ☐ To assist District agencies in meeting their CBE goals.

HOW TO APPLY FOR THE DC SUPPLY SCHEDULE

Each solicitation is posted online. Visit the OCP website at www.ocp.dc.gov and click on DC Supply Schedule Solicitation/Application.

Follow the instructions and submit two (2) copies of your proposal to the OCP Bid Room, 441-4th Street, N.W., Suite 703 S, Washington, DC 20001.

MAJOR CRITERIA FOR APPLYING FOR DCSS

- ☐ Contractor must be certified by the Department of Small and Local Business Development.
- ☐ Contractor must adopt a federal multiple award price schedule consistent with the scope of the DCSS application. To obtain federal price schedule information log onto www.gsaelibrary.gsa.gov.
- ☐ Contractor must be in compliance with the tax laws of the District of Columbia.

CONTRACT AWARD

Once a contractor is awarded a DCSS contract, procurement personnel are able to competitively place task orders or delivery orders against the base DCSS contract.
